

snapshot

cabana and art studio upper brookville, ny

Serving as a cabana and art studio, this dual-function shingled building was designed using elements already articulated on the main house. An entablature, which sits atop Tuscan pilasters and wraps around the building, houses a retractable awning.

The building is situated on a rise overlooking an existing swimming pool and the main house beyond.

Beztech, Inc., Cold Spring Harbor – Stephen Bezas, Designer

